HOW IT HAPPENED. We saw a gentleman from the nighborhood of Milton, Atchison county, who says, that the excitement about the small-pox has entirely subsided. The result of the panic may be summed up as tollows: Young Mr. Price this town and moving on his furm. visited the small-pox hospital in St. balance are badly marked up.

MRS. ELIZABLH CADY

On Tuesday night last the citizens of Oregon and vicinity were treated to a rich intellectual feast. Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, one of the noble women of America, delivered one of her best lectures in the Court House to a crowded and highly intelligent audience that had congregated together from all parts of the county. The subject was "Our Girls," which she handled in a masterly manner, and the annunciations of the rights and duties of women were received with unbounded satisfaction and rapturous applause by the audience. It is impossible for us to give an outline of her discourse, but suffice it to say, that the principles of woman's sphere and destiny as inculcated by Mrs. Stanton, have struck a chord in many an beart.

The indies of the Oregon Woman's Union deserve great credit for having secured the services of this eminent woman. On Wednesday morning she lectured exclusively to ladies, and after the lecture took the northern bound train for some point in Iowa.

E. H. WALTERS.

Week before last we copied an article from the Hiawatha Dispatch concerning E. H. Walter which contained into Mr. Hershberger's family of this city, his reputation was untarnished, and the seduction scrape alluded to by as regards Walters. Missouri, but this Mr. Walters married a respectable girl in Missouri, and treated her well during her short lifetime. We are glad we are able to say this much for him. The St. Joseph Gazette says he went from Hiawatha to Forest City, Mo., for the purpose, as he said, of disposing of some property there, but instead of selling property (he had none), he made numerous debts there, and lit out. From all we can learn Mr. W. is really and in the can be seen to the control of the con learn Mr.W. is really subject to aberra tion of the mind. And it seems that lately these spells came upon him, after he has staid long enough in one place to contract debts to a considerable

HOMICIDE AT CRAIG. Kiling of John Redmon.

Some hours after nightfall on Saturday evening, the 27th of February, Craig was the scene of a most desperate affray, which resulted in the death of John Redmon, a resident of that dren, between 35 and 40 years of age.

The facts in the case are somewhat shrouded in mystery, but as near as we could ascertain, are about as follows:

On the day alluded to Geo. Williams as soon as possible. aged about 21, and John Shaw aged about 18, were in Craig, and were known to frequent the saloon quite treely, as was their custom. Sometime liams and Shaw took offense at a negro er. who has been staying about Craig, and declared that they would kill him. Bota men met in rear of Ward & Parrish's store, where were also Jack Brown, John Redmon, and the negro. It is said that whilst Redmon was endeavoring to keep Williams and Shaw from killing the negro, he received the knock or shot on the temple immediately over the left eye, which proved fatal. Redmon staggered into Parker's oyster saloon, the blood streaming down his face, and as he sank down he said that John Shaw had shot him.

The enfortunate man was removed to his own house where he died in four nesday evening, to hear that concert people, have created a feeling of widehour after he was hurt.
